

CRITICAL YOUTH LANGUAGE WORKSHOP

crun mppy
Ababa street identity called slang
Yanke
Sheng young non-standard image drugs Venlan

proficiency Touché bad ants

RETHINKING METHODOLOGY, SOCIOLINGUISTIC THEORY & DATA

20. FEBRUAR 2017 10-17:00
INSTITUT FÜR AFRIKANISTIK & ÄGYPTOLOGIE
MEISTER-EKKEHART-STR. 7, RAUM 1, 1. STOCK

CRITICAL YOUTH LANGUAGE WORKSHOP

Rethinking methodology, sociolinguistic theory and data

20 February 2017, 10 a.m – 5 p.m.

Institut für Afrikanistik & Ägyptologie
Meister-Ekkehart-Str. 7
1. Stock, Raum I

PROGRAM

- 10:00 Welcome
- 10:15 Anne Storch
“Silencing youth”
- 11:00 Germain Landi & Helma Pasch
“How to get the data on Sango Godobé?”
- 11:45 Nicolai Klotz
“Whose language after all? – The case of Sheng in Kenya and Yabacrâne in the DRC”
- 12:30–13:30 Lunch break
- 13:30 Janosch Leugner (Universität Potsdam) “Namslang, Namlish, Südwesterdeutsch: All Namdeutsch? – Perspectives on their language by young pupils in Windhoek”
- 14:15 Nico Nassenstein
“Scrutinizing African youths’ language ideologies: On motivations, beliefs and local explanations”
- 15:00 Andrea Hollington
“Doing research with Arada youths: Critical perspectives on a comparative wordlist project”
- 15:45–16:00 Tea break
- 16:00 Steffen Lorenz
“From hustlers to thieves – An intersectional look at ideologies and identities of Leb pa Bwulu speakers”
- 16:45 Ana Deumert & Nkululeko Mabandla (University of Cape Town) “Commentary”, Discussion
- 17:30 End